

We Challenge You To Take The Voice Taste Test. Norman Jenkins Did!

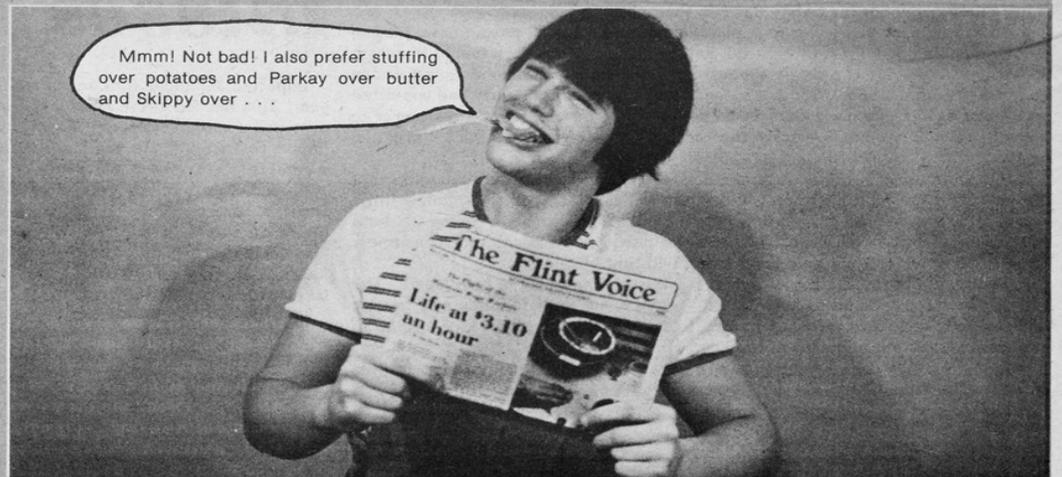

1. We challenged Norman Jenkins to take the Voice taste test, to tell us, in his opinion, which paper tasted better, the Flint Journal or the Flint Voice. We didn't blindfold him because we couldn't afford one and besides, he looked stupid enough not to notice. First, a bite of the Journal . . .

2. . . . and the result

Hey, do ya got any anchovies to put on this?

Mmm! Not bad! I also prefer stuffing over potatoes and Parkay over butter and Skippy over . . .

3. Now for a cracker to clear the pallet . . .

4. . . . and finally, a taste of the Flint Voice. Another satisfied customer who had nothing better to do than to pose for our hidden camera.

CONVINCED?

YES! Please send me a year's supply of the Flint Voice.
I hate stuffing and potatoes. Enclosed is my $5
