These Crimes Don't Count

By Robert Elias

"...and all the criminals in their coats and their ties are free to drink martinis and watch the sun rise..."

—Bob Dylan

They're saying it again: We must do something about violent crime. Attorney General William French Smith has announced that violent crime is the Reagan Administration's primary criminal-justice concern. Chief Justice Warren Burger has called for new toughness in dealing with violence.

Last spring, both Time and Newsweek featured stories on crime. And the "reformed" and repressive Federal
