

Letters to Santa

Dear Santa,
 It has come to our attention that your "little helpers" have been giving you too much of a hand - if you know what I mean. Now, what kind of examples are you setting for our children? We also heard reports that your reindeer were doing more than just dancing and prancing in the sky.
 If you keep this lewd behavior up I'll be no orange juice and cookies for you this year.
 Sincerely,
 Anita Bryant

Dear Santa,
 You haven't been to San Clemente how for many many years. What's wrong? Was it something I did? No probably something Pat's did. Last year I left you some of my favorite marijuana brownies but still you didn't leave me anything. Well, it doesn't matter. I'll get you. You in your Red outfit with Borivnakof, isn't it? ya, we got the dubs on you...you...you...wait, I think I hear Abe calling me - gotta go.
 Victory in 1984,
 R.M. Nixon

Dear Santa Claus,
 I have been such a good boy this year. I haven't done a single thing that's wrong. As a matter of fact, I haven't done a single thing at all.
 I'll take anything you can leave me - just as long as it's wrapped in a brown paper bag.
 your little friend,
 Jimmy Rutherford

Santa -
 Being a modest man who seeks little earthly reward for my efforts I would like you to give my presents this year to a group of young people on the corner of Lapeer & Genessee Road in Burton.
 Please send them a FIVE FOOT high concrete wall complete with a 20-foot deep moat filled with killer alligators.
 In God we trust,
 Eugene Kovacs
